

BD-40 USB

New and versatile Braille Display

Made in Germany

Opens new horizons for the Blind

The BD-40 USB is a new and versatile Braille Display which allows the Blind to work with Personal Computers and the internet. Its rugged casing and compact size are designed for heavy daily use.

The BD-40 USB can open new educational frontiers and job oppurtunities for the Blind.

BD-40 USB

Hardware Specifications

- * New high-tec Braille technology with low power & compact PIEZO cells
- * Braille Modules: 40 units for text display
- * Routing buttons integrated into all 40 Braille cells
- * Modern electronic system with USB interface (Ver. 2.0) for easy installation
- * Internal power supply via USB interface – no external power supply required
- * 6 Function keys for left and right hand users (up/down or left/right - home)
- * Full aluminium case
- * Dimensions (WxDxH): 357 x 109 x 25 mm
- * Weight: approx. 1200 grams
- * Also available as
  - BD-20 USB with 20 Braille cells
  - BD-25 USB with 25 Braille cells
  - BD-32 USB with 32 Braille cells

The BD-40 USB interface allows easy installation

The new BD-40 is a light and compact Braille system

Software Specifications

- * Device driver for Windows 2000, XP and Vista